About

Idle Adventure is a game concept created by Alex Sheriff for his SE-402 Class at Monmouth University. You can gather supplies to upgrade your party members, and send those party members out on quests. Furthermore, as you are playing you will be subjected to "encounters" which will give you an opportunity to gain more supply, or lose some. Have fun!

SUCCESS!

It seems that it has
been long abandoned.
After rummaging you walk away with more food and supply.

THIEF!

While you're rummaging through the merchant's cart you hear a man yell "Thief!" from down the road. You turn to see 5 large mercenaries running towards you. You're fast, but not fast enough. You drop some of your inventory in order to get away quicker.

MOVE ALONG...

You've heard of tales of bandits robbing naïve adventures in scenarios like these. Its best to not take any chances and move along.
